

2nd Road Safety PIN Conference

Countdown to 2010 – only two more years to act!

23 June 2008, 13.30 - 18.30

Sofitel Hotel, Place Jourdan 1, 1040 Brussels

13.30 Registration and coffee

14.00 Welcome by Prof. Herman De Croo, President of ETSC

Welcome address Isabelle Kardacz, DG TREN, European Commission

14.10 European perspective on road safety developments

The 2nd year of the Road Safety PIN

Chaired by Prof. Richard Allsop, Road Safety PIN Chairman

EU Falling short of the target, New PIN country ranking, Graziella Jost, ETSC

Panel debate with PIN Panelists Aldis Lama (Latvia), Ilona Buttler (Poland), Tsippy Lotan (Israel), Peter Mak (the Netherlands), Vojtech Eksler (the Czech Republic)

Questions and answers

15.15 Coffee break

15.45 PIN Award ceremony

Chaired by Antonio Avenoso, ETSC Executive Director

Hand over of the Award to Mário Lino, Minister of Public Works, Transport and Communications, Portugal

Presentation by Paulo Marques, President of the Portuguese Road Safety Authority

Questions and answers

16.30 Official Picture with the country representatives

Coffee break

17.00 How to reverse the 2007 setback trend? What should be the next steps to 2010

Panel debate chaired by Jennifer Rankin, European Voice, with

Joao Cardoso, National Laboratory of Civil Engineering, PIN Panelist, Portugal

Jean Chapelon, Observatoire Interministériel à la Sécurité routière, PIN Panelist, France

Asa Ersson, Swedish Road Administration

Stephen Stacey, Toyota Motor Europe

Ines Ayala Sender MEP

Jean Paul Repussard, DG TREN European Commission

Questions and answers

18.30 End