

Road Safety PIN Talk in Estonia
Achievements and shortcomings in the European context
How to improve speed management in Estonia?
Friday 21 May 2010, 10am to 2pm

Venue: Ministry of Economic Affairs and Communications, Harju 11, Tallinn

Agenda

10:00 Opening and welcome

Mr. Eero Pärasmäe, Deputy Secretary General (Transport) at the Ministry of Economical Affairs and Communications

Mr. Antonio Avenoso, Executive Director, European Transport Safety Council

10:15 Presentations

ETSC's Road Safety Performance Index – Road safety in Estonia in an European context

Mrs. Graziella Jost, PIN Programme Manager, ETSC

How to change road users' attitude towards speeding

Prof. Dago Antov, Tallinn University of Technology, PIN national expert for Estonia

Latvian experience in tackling speed

Mr. Aldis Lama, Ministry of Transport and PIN national expert for Latvia

What can Estonia learn from the Finnish experience and what can Finland learn from Estonia

Mr. Veli-Pekka Kallberg, Technical Research Centre (VTT), Finland.

Questions on the presentations and answers

11:45 Break

12:05 Open debate with all participants, chaired by Priit Vene, Head of the Transportation and Traffic Division, at the Ministry of the Economic Affairs and Communications

- What should Estonia further do to drive the fight against speeding in Europe?

13:00 Conclusions by Prof Dago Antov

13:15 Opening of the buffet

The Road Safety Performance Index receives financial support from Swedish Transportation Administration, Toyota Motor Europe and the Norwegian Public Road Administration.