17-18 June 2008

PEPPER project

Police Enforcement Policy and Programmes on European Roads

Seminar Programme

DAY ONE

08.30		Registration
09.00		Welcome (Veli-Pekka Kallberg, PEPPER Project Coordinator)
09.30		Keynote (Carla Hess, European Commission)
10.00		SESSION 1: Enforcement policy in a national context
	10.00	Public support for enhanced enforcement (Sonja Forward, VTI)
10.30		Coffee
	11.00	Who and what determines traffic policing (David Zaidel, 4sight)
	11.15	Cross border enforcement as a case study of an evolving traffic law enforcement process (Colin Wilson, IBI)
	11:45	A case study of traffic enforcement policy derived from a national road safety strategy (French Official, tbc)
	12:15	General discussion
12.30		Lunch
13.30		SESSION 2: Handling Europe-wide traffic law enforcement data
	13.30	European Commission needs (European Commission, tbc)
	14.00	CLEOPATRA database – an example of an easy-to-use online police oriented database for traffic law enforcement (Cor Kuijten, KLPD)
14.30		Coffee
	15.00	PEPPER experiences with traffic law enforcement data and the importance of developing a common methodology (Anu Siren, DTU)
	15.30	From data collection to usable output (Lars Akkermans, BIVV/Carsten Jensen, DTU)
	16.00	A conceptual model of a Europe-wide traffic law enforcement monitoring database (Lila Gaitanidou, HIT)
	16.30	General discussion
17.00		Closing Word
17.15		End of day one
19.30		Conference Dinner

17-18 June 2008

PEPPER project

Police Enforcement Policy and Programmes on European Roads

Seminar Programme

DAY TWO

09.00		Welcome (Veli-Pekka Kallberg, PEPPER Project Coordinator)
09.30		Keynote (Jindrich Fric, CDV)
10.00		SESSION 3: The technology dimension of traffic law enforcement
	10.00	Use of in-vehicle positioning and monitoring technology to promote self-regulation of compliant and safer driving behavior (Dr. Tsippy Lotan, Or Yarok)
	10.30	Risk analysis of positioning technologies in the tactical planning and deployment of traffic surveillance and traffic law enforcement (Lila Gaitanidou, CERTH/HIT)
11.00		Coffee
	11.30	Implications of smart technology for traffic law enforcement (Tonje Grunnan, TØI)
	12.00	The technology dimension of cross border enforcement (Jan Malenstein, Dutch National Police Agency)
	12:30	General discussion
13.00		Lunch
14.00		SESSION 4: Good practices in traffic law enforcement
	14.00	Traffic law enforcement best practice in Slovenia (Robert Susanj, Slovenian Traffic Police)
	14.25	Good practice in traffic law enforcement strategic planning and tactical deployment (Kai Assing, BASt)
14.50		Coffee
	15.15	Evaluation of the 0.0 BAC limit for drivers in the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary and Croatia (Pavlina Filemon Rocakova,CDV)
	15.40	Best practices on police enforcement against drink driving (Alena Erke, TØI)
	16.05	Best practices of police enforcement against speeding (Charles Goldenbeld, SWOV)
	16.30	General discussion
17.00		Closing Word
17.30		End of conference

17-18 June 2008

PEPPER project

Police Enforcement Policy and Programmes on European Roads

Conference Venue

Narodni dum na Vinohradech (National House)
Namesti miru 9,
Praha 2

More information on the venue and suggested accommodation to be found in the PEPPER web-site: www.pepper-eu.org

Registration

To register please contact:

Timmo Janitzek
European Transport Safety Council
timmo.janitzek@etsc.be www.etsc.be

Deadline for registrations: 15 May 2008

Free of charge
Limited seats